

News, 38/2004

Coelho in Melk: The Reading of the Year

Spectacular: Paulo Coelho, Brazilian novelist and self-help author, is coming to Melk for the Waldzell Institute and NEWS, to reopen the Austrian section of the Road to Santiago. Coelho will speak on the search for meaning and spirituality, Karlheinz Hackl, who only recently mastered his personal pilgrimage between life and death, will read from Coelho's book "The Pilgrimage". Madoka Inui and the philharmonic clarinetist Peter Schmidl, designated musical director of the Salzburg Festival, will play Schumann. Wednesday, 22 September, 7 p.m., Melk Abbey. Sold out, limited number of tickets available at the box office.